Family Partner Mental Health System Overview

Dates: December 11, 2026; February 19, 2027; June 25, 2027;

Time: 1:30 PM

Location: Virtual

Build knowledge and confidence in navigating mental health, medical, crisis, and community service systems. This interactive training explores how families access services, common barriers they face, and the emotional impact these experiences can have on caregivers.

Through engaging activities and breakout discussions, participants will strengthen their understanding of these systems and gain practical insights to better support families in their Certified Family Peer Specialist (CFPS) role.

This training is eligible for 2 contact hours.
