ReCAST II Mecklenburg, in partnership with South Piedmont AHEC and Teen Health Connection, presents an interactive webinar focused on adolescent suicide prevention and intervention.

Participants will learn to recognize risk factors and warning signs, confidently initiate conversations about suicide, respond to youth in crisis, and use screening and safety-planning strategies. The training will also highlight resources and referral pathways to help connect youth and families to appropriate care and support.

This training is designed for healthcare providers, educators, school personnel, social workers, counselors, and other professionals who support adolescents in Mecklenburg County.
